Letter From Our Leadership

In our respective positions as Episcopal Director and Executive Director of The Foundation for Evangelism we have an opportunity to see The United Methodist Church at its worst and its best. It is, like most human organizations, both flawed and filled with incredible potential. While it is easy for us to focus on the weaknesses of the church and to develop strategies to address them, we are learning that it is more beneficial to find those places where really wonderful things are happening and to identify what, if anything, these have in common. It turns out that there is one thing in common with all thriving aspects of our beloved denomination – outstanding leadership. At any level of the church, when you find great things happening you will always find that strong leadership is present.

Here at The Foundation for Evangelism, we have come to understand that for The United Methodist Church to thrive we need to have the right people in the right place at the right time doing the right things. It is all about leadership! That is why we continue to fund programs and initiatives that fulfill our vision to raise up generations of leaders with a passion to help people experience God’s transforming love through Jesus Christ. We are so grateful for all of you who have helped to play such an important role in the future of the church through your generous support. With your help we are truly making a difference.

*William A. Hutchinson
John L. Ewing Jr.*

Celebrating 60 years of Raising Up Generations of Leaders

In 1949, the late Dr. Harry Denman could not have imagined the impact that The Foundation for Evangelism would have on the future of The United Methodist Church. In these last 60 years, Dr. Denman’s vision of establishing Professors of Evangelism at Methodist Seminaries has expanded to encompass 13 Professors of Evangelism around the world. The Foundation has taken that vision further to include providing grants for youth and young adult ministry, technology and media resource development, young clergy training, lay missionary training and Hispanic-Latino leadership training.

This year’s 60th Anniversary Celebration provided ample time to reflect on the many accomplishments of the organization since its beginning. In October at The Foundation for Evangelism’s Annual Meeting and Anniversary Celebration, trustees, donors, staff and colleagues remembered Dr. Denman and others who contributed to the Foundation’s efforts. Many prayers of thanksgiving were lifted to God for the rich blessings the Foundation has received and for the blessing it has been to The United Methodist Church.

As we celebrate the many accomplishments of the last 60 years, we also look toward the future that is bright with promise. Much work must still be done to support The United Methodist Church in raising up generations of leaders with a passion for helping others experience the transforming love of God through Jesus Christ. We hope you will join us.

Refresh Campus Ministry Conference

"In just a few days, I was able to make a number of connections, catch up with old friends, and learn about new ways to worship."

- Rev. Brian Combs
The Asheville Mission Congregation
Campus Minister at University of North Carolina, Asheville

For the fifth consecutive year, the Refresh Campus Ministry Conference provided the opportunity for over 150 individuals working in United Methodist campus ministry to be renewed through powerful worship, gain valuable resources through relevant workshops, and network with peers from around the country. This event is co-sponsored by The Woodlands United Methodist Church at The Woodlands, Texas, which has hosted the conference for the last four years.

The Congress on Evangelism

The 2009 Congress on Evangelism held in Nashville, Tenn., focused on "Leading in the Wesleyan Way." The Congress, sponsored by The Council on Evangelism and The General Board of Discipleship, meets every January. Among the 900 people who attended, 38 young pastors from 30 United Methodist Districts attended on scholarships funded by The Foundation for Evangelism. For the first time, sessions were held for those working in Hispanic/Latino ministries. The Foundation provided a grant to fund 22 scholarships for this program.

Providing Grants to Develop Leaders

Venture Capital Grant Program

The Young Pastors Network

This 13-month program launched in 2008 is designed specifically for high-capacity clergy under the age of 35 within The United Methodist Church. Developed by Rev. Mike Slaughter and Rev. Adam Hamilton, pastors of two of the largest churches in the connection, the program provides a "large church leadership development school" for young pastors. Hamilton and Slaughter train and mentor 50 young pastors nominated by their bishops for having the potential of leading churches with weekly attendance of more than 1,000. Participants in the program come away with skills in strengthening every church they serve, but will be particularly helpful in serving the larger church.

Lewis Learning Communities

Through the Lewis Center for Church Leadership at Wesley Theological Seminary, strategically selected groups of pastors and lay leaders participate in peer learning groups with the specific goal of increasing worship attendance.

Four communities made up of five to seven church teams are currently meeting. Each learning community is facilitated by a highly regarded local pastor with a record of making disciples for Jesus Christ.

The Lewis Center has a system in place for collecting attendance and other data from participating congregations over the course of the program in order to monitor their action plans and the results of their efforts.

Path One

This initiative of The United Methodist Church to train lay missionaries to start new faith communities is coordinated by The General Board of Discipleship. The United States has become the 3rd largest mission field in the English-speaking world, and the 5th largest globally. The demographics of the communities surrounding local churches are changing, causing a need to change the way in which we relate to this diverse and changing population. The grant provided by The Foundation for Evangelism will help identify and train lay leaders to serve new congregations and ministries including Hispanic/Latino and African American communities. This focus on developing lay leaders with a passion for evangelism is critical for The United Methodist Church to grow and thrive.

West Ohio Conference Residency Program

Under the leadership of Bishop Bruce Ough, this program selects recent seminary graduates and places them in healthy, growing congregations in order to work with senior clergy recognized for outstanding leadership abilities. Using Jeremiah 3:15 as a reference, Bishop Ough states, "The next generation of 'shepherds after God's heart' is being called, nurtured and formed through our internship and residency programs."

The multiplying impact on The United Methodist Church is apparent with the 20 residents of this program expected, over the course of their ministries, to turn 80-100 churches into healthy, growing faith communities.

Raising Up Generations of Leaders

Recognizing Leaders

The Harry Denman Evangelism Awards

In 2009, The Foundation in partnership with 48 Annual Conferences, awarded 96 Harry Denman Evangelism Awards to lay and clergy leaders.

The Distinguished Evangelist of The United Methodist Church Award

Rev. Jorge Acevedo, of Grace Church in Cape Coral, FL, was the recipient of the 2009 Distinguished Evangelist of The United Methodist Church Award. Rev. Acevedo is a transformational United Methodist pastor whose leadership has fostered outreach and growth at Grace Church, bringing the transforming message of God's grace to their community and beyond.

Rev. Jorge Acevedo accepts the 2009 Distinguished Evangelist of The United Methodist Church Award from Dr. John L. Ewing, Jr.

Doctoral Scholarships

The Foundation for Evangelism sponsored six scholarships for those pursuing a ThD in Evangelism at Duke Divinity School and seven pursuing a PhD in Evangelism at Asbury Theological Seminary. These scholarships are equipping scholars in the Wesleyan tradition who express an interest in being considered for faculty positions in evangelism.

Denman Doctoral Fellowships

In partnership with A Foundation for Theological Education (AFTE), The Harry Denman Fellowships are awarded to scholars in the United Methodist tradition who are pursuing doctoral studies in evangelism and related disciplines. Currently there are six Harry Denman Fellows studying at institutions such as Perkins School of Theology, University of Manchester in England, and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

Timothy Scholars Program

The Timothy Scholars Program supports six doctoral students focusing on practical and missional theology in youth and young adult ministries at Princeton Theological Seminary. This program is part of The Foundation for Evangelism's efforts to strengthen youth and young adult ministry in The United Methodist Church.

Praise for the E. Stanely Jones Professors of Evangelism

"After my evangelism classes with Professor Bryan Stone, my view was expanded . . . Evangelism is not so much about the number of people in the pews, but rather the number of people who come to know a loving, healing, powerful God as a result of the life I live as an individual and as a pastor."

- Rev. Laurel E. Scott
2002 Graduate, Boston University School of Theology,
Former Student of Dr. Bryan Stone

This year, as The Foundation for Evangelism celebrated its 60th Anniversary, the late Dr. Harry Denman's dream of placing a Professor of Evangelism in every Methodist Theological Seminary continues. The Foundation for Evangelism provided grant support for professorships in 13 United Methodist related seminaries and schools of theology, including professorships in Reutlingen, (Germany), Moscow (Russia) and Mutare (Zimbabwe).

Through these professorships supported by The Foundation for Evangelism, a new generation of leaders with a passion for helping others experience God's transforming love through Jesus Christ are being identified and equipped to have a multiplying impact on The United Methodist Church.

Our Financial Position

The Foundation for Evangelism experienced a positive financial year following last year's record losses. Net Assets were up $715,000 while total expenses were down $1.3 million from 2008. All grant obligations were met, including the first ever Venture Capital Grants totaling $250,000.

Efforts were focused on accountability, stewardship and continued grant support. The Board of Trustees implemented an investment strategy focused on sustainability, reducing the impact of the economy on the Foundation's investments and revenues. Operational expenses were closely monitored resulting in a 7.1% reduction in administrative costs at year's end, bringing overhead cost reduction to more than 25% in the last 2 years.

The Foundation for Evangelism continues its focus on providing resources for the development of leaders with a passion for evangelism who will have a multiplying impact on The United Methodist Church.

New Giving Societies

Leaders Council

The Leaders Council is made up of individual donors who are passionate about the mission and vision of The Foundation for Evangelism and who partner with the Foundation by committing to a minimum annual gift of $1,000 or more.

Leaders for Tomorrow Churches

A Leaders for Tomorrow Church is one that supports The Foundation for Evangelism by committing to give at least $1,000 per year for five years.

“I have been blessed to serve The United Methodist Church in many leadership roles, but perhaps the greatest impact is my role as donor. This Foundation is uniquely positioned to help the Church develop principled Christian leaders for the Church and the world. My gift is making a difference in preparing leaders to Offer Them Christ.”
