Young Pastors Network Interview Series

The first in an ongoing series of interviews with members of the Young Pastors Network (YPN).

Part of our 2009 Venture Capital Program, the YPN initiative, developed by Rev. Adam Hamilton and Rev. Mike Slaughter, pastors of two of the largest churches in the connection, set out to train and mentor 50 young pastors nominated by their bishops for having the potential of leading churches with weekly attendance of more than 1,000.

First, we speak with Pastor David Hood. David Hood serves as the campus pastor at Ginghamburg's newest campus, Fort McKinley in Dayton, Ohio.

Final Call for Nominations: Culture of the Call Award

The Foundation for Evangelism announces a new award, the Culture of the Call Church Award. This award will recognize one local congregation of The United Methodist Church each year that has a history of having young people 35 or younger respond to God's call to full-time Christian service as a result of their being active in the life of that church. The award highlights churches that, like the Foundation, are helping to raise up generations of leaders with a passion for evangelism.

For more information or to be considered for this award, please visit our website at www.FoundationForEvangelism.org or call (800) 737-8333.

The deadline for applications is April 10, 2010.

Book Review: Living Upon the Way

Guest Review By: Dr. Roberto Escamilla

Those of us who were privileged to hear Dr. E. Stanley Jones (affectionately called "Brother Stanley") preach are now delighted to be able to read his sermons and to hear his incomparable voice once again. Though Brother Stanley died in 1973, those who were not so fortunate as to hear him will be greatly inspired by Living Upon the Way.

E Stanley Jones was described as the "greatest missionary since Saint Paul." He was an evangelist, apostle, missionary, author of 29 books, statesman, founder of Christian Ashrams, ecumenical leader and spokesman for peace, racial brotherhood, and social justice -- a friend to President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Mahatma Gandhi and a constant witness for Jesus Christ...

Recognizing Youth Leadership with the Harry Denman Evangelism Award

The Foundation for Evangelism is committed to raising up generations of leaders with a passion for evangelism. In recognition of the amazing witness of youth and young adults in the life of The United Methodist Church, this year the Foundation has instituted The Harry Denman Youth Evangelism

Award. This award is established not only to lift up the work of these young people but with the hope that they may answer the call to full-time Christian service.

The Foundation for Evangelism is privileged to work with each Annual Conference to sponsor this prestigious award. To learn more about the award or to make a nomination to your Annual Conference, visit The Foundation for Evangelism website.
