NOMINATIONS FOR DENMAN EVANGELISM AWARD OPEN

(LAKE JUNALUSKA, NORTH CAROLINA) - Harry Denman Evangelism Award recipients are committed to introduce others to Jesus Christ. They are exceptional for the number of Christ followers who credit their relationship with this person as critical in helping to start or reignite a personal faith journey. Each year, Annual Conferences join The Foundation for Evangelism (FFE) to recognize outstanding youth, clergy, and laity in their conference with the award.

Harry Denman, noted lay evangelist and Christian leader, believed that each person must live their call to make disciples of Jesus Christ through relationship, mission, and preaching. Even now, more than forty years after his death, Denman's words still inspire: "Today...the only way we can see Christ is to see him wrapped in a person... We need to become a package of love, a package of faith, a package of Christ. Then we will be a package of evangelism."

Nominations forms for the 2017 Harry Denman Evangelism Awards are available on The Foundation for Evangelism website or by contacting your Annual Conference.

Headquartered in Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, the FFE is an international grant-making foundation that promotes, encourages and provides resources for evangelism in the spirit of John Wesley. Through initiatives such as the E. Stanley Jones Professors of Evangelism, the Making Disciples on the College Campus grant, and numerous recognition programs, FFE supports ministries that impact young people and the local church by addressing adaptive challenges in leadership and evangelism training.
