NOMINATIONS FOR DENMAN EVANGELISM AWARD OPEN

(LAKE JUNALUSKA, NORTH CAROLINA) – “Preach the Gospel at all times, and when necessary use words.” We cross paths with people that personify this quote almost daily in our ministry. Like Susie Heidt, who coordinated a successful VBS in a town that has no schools. Or Ethan Oltreman, a high school senior who organized a revival designed to encourage racial reconciliation. Or Rev. Andrew Singh who is passionate about moving his church parishioners to pray and grow in their prayer lives equipping them to share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Each year, Annual Conferences across the nation join The Foundation for Evangelism (FFE) to recognize outstanding youth, clergy, and laity in their conference with the Harry Denman Evangelism Award. Harry Denman, noted lay evangelist and Christian leader, believed that each person must live their call to make disciples of Jesus Christ through relationship, mission, and preaching. Even now, more than forty years after his death, Denman’s words still inspire: “Today...the only way we can see Christ is to see him wrapped in a person...”

Nominations forms for the 2018 Harry Denman Evangelism Awards are available on The Foundation for Evangelism website or by contacting your Annual Conference.

The Foundation for Evangelism (FFE) is a catalyst to equip disciples to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. We promote, encourage and provide resources for Wesleyan evangelism, inviting all people into life-transforming relationship with Jesus. Our United Methodist and Wesleyan-tradition seminary, local church, and college-focused ministry partners are invited to receive grants to explore adaptive ministry approaches and ideas.
