NOMINATIONS FOR DENMAN EVANGELISM AWARDS OPEN

(LAKE JUNALUSKA, NC) – The Foundation for Evangelism extends for the 40th year an invitation to United Methodist Annual Conferences to partner with them in selecting recipients for the 2019 Harry Denman Evangelism Awards. The awards recognize outstanding youth, clergy, and laity whose ministry has helped to nurture and empower disciples so changed by their relationship with Jesus Christ that they cannot stop themselves from serving as Christ served, or sharing "Why Jesus" in all aspects of their lives.

Instructions and nominations forms for the 2019 Harry Denman Evangelism Awards are available on The Foundation for Evangelism website (foundationforevangelism.org/hdea) or by contacting your Annual Conference.

Harry Denman, a noted lay evangelist and leader in the Methodist Church in the 1950s, believed that each person must live their call to make disciples of Jesus Christ through relationship, mission, and preaching. Denman's words still inspire more than forty years after his death: "Today...the only way we can see Christ is to see him wrapped in a person..."

The Foundation for Evangelism, now in its 70th year, exists as a catalyst to equip disciples to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, ensuring that evangelism is an integral part of disciple-making. Its mission is to promote, encourage and provide resources for Wesleyan evangelism, inviting all people into life-transforming relationship with Jesus. United Methodist and Wesleyan-tradition seminaries, local churches, and college-focused ministry partners are invited into relationship to explore adaptive ministry approaches and ideas.
