

fast FORWARD

Your Bi-Monthly Update on The Foundation for Evangelism
Summer 2020 Issue

Catalyst Conversations Explore Evangelism

Inspired by popular podcasts, the Catalyst Conversations explore ideas around faith-sharing and how local churches can build a culture of evangelism that nurtures disciples and invites all people into life-transforming relationship with Jesus. These conversations, held with pastors and laity, are available in video and audio format.

This growing collection will be added to throughout the year.

Find Out More

Denman Fellows Meet at Christmas Conference - New Fellow Named

It's the annual gathering of the Harry Denman and John Wesley Fellows, but this Christmas Conference builds on a historical connection to Methodism's past. We also introduce you to the newest Denman Fellow.

Read the Article

Evangelism for Non-Evangelists Webinar Registration OPEN!

This six-week online course invites you to reflect on your belief in God, to help you articulate your faith in an authentic way, and develop creative practices that grow from those beliefs. Drs. Heather Lear and Mark Teasdale will be leading the course. Deadline to register: Aug. 23.

Learn More or Register

Denman Evangelism Award Recipient Puts God First

Dr. Bryan Sibley received the 2019 Harry Denman Evangelism Award in the Louisiana Conference. He decided to share what he learned through his struggles prioritizing professional, spiritual, and family matters by writing a book.

Read the Article

E. Stanley Jones Professor's New Book Helps Churches Connect to Community

This is an excellent book for pastors, leadership teams, or entire congregations to work through together. The result will be churches who are fully missional, serving with vitality, boldness, and confidence.

Read more

FFE Welcomes New Trustee

Mr. Ross Barrett is the newest member of The Foundation's board of trustees. A lay person from Louisiana, he works with BVM Capital Partners LLC, a Southeast-based venture capital firm. He is passionate about Jesus and driven to introduce young people to a life-transforming faith. Ross lives with his wife and children and Shreveport, La.

Annual Report Available in FORWARD publication Online

The Foundation for Evangelism's 2019 Annual

FORWARD

A PUBLICATION OF THE FOUNDATION FOR EVANGELISM

This Issue:

- HOW ONE PLANNED GIFT HELPED IN A CRISIS
- GRANT HAS IMPACT DECADES LATER
- 2019 ANNUAL REPORT
- MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR & 2019-20 BOARD OF TRUSTEES
- SPONSORSHIP PROVIDED TO ORDER OF THE FLAME
- NEW TRUSTEE FOR THE FOUNDATION
- THANKS TO OUR DONORS

How One Planned Gift Helped In a Crisis

No one could have anticipated COVID-19's arrival or the unimaginable economic impact that followed. In the early days of the pandemic's spread, the staff and board of the Foundation for Evangelism implemented procedures to allow the Foundation to be a good steward of its resources while ensuring no disruption in grant funding.

By the staff of the Foundation for Evangelism

Report is available online in the FORWARD publication. You can sign up to receive FORWARD by mail or email on our website.

A catalyst to equip disciples to share the Good News of Jesus Christ

Consider making a donation to support grants such as evangelism training webinars, evangelism awards, and resources for local churches. All gifts are tax-deductible.

LEARN MORE

// CONNECT WITH US //

