Your Bi-Monthly Update on The Foundation for Evangelism
January–February 2021 Issue

What's in a Name?

Last week, The Foundation for Evangelism celebrated 72 years of being a catalyst to equip disciples to share the Good News of Jesus Christ! Of course, when we celebrate we must look back to the founder, the man who inspired this grant-giving legacy. Dr. Harry Denman was many things to many people. Dana K. Tyson remembers some of the encounters she had with Dr. Denman while serving in the Philippines, and the impact that Denman had on the lives of those he met.

Seeing and Meeting the Needs of the Community in the Name of Christ

2020 was a year of challenges and difficulty for many. That's why when we received each story of a Harry Denman Evangelism Award recipient, we felt joy that God's kingdom was continuing to be built in the midst of struggle! Read stories from a few of the 2020 recipients, and we look forward to sharing more as the 2021 recipients are nominated! Submit a Nomination to your Annual Conference Office Today!

Why the Greater New Jersey Conference Gives Harry Denman Evangelism Awards

John Wesley and Harry Denman had something in common - they brought the Good News of Jesus Christ to people where they were. The Greater New Jersey Conference is just one of the many that honor the ministry of those who share God's transforming message with those they meet.

The Quotable Mr. Wesley Returns

This treasure trove of quotes by Methodism's founder, John Wesley, has long been a staple on pastor's bookshelves. In partnership with Rev. Dr. Stephen Gunter, editor, and The United Methodist Board of Higher Education and Ministry, The Foundation for Evangelism has provided a grant to refresh this classic reference. Add a copy to your shelf today!
